

One I Dreamed Up

Duple improper

Music: 32 bar jigs

A1 1-8 First couple go down, lady in centre, man outside the set, return, lady outside, man inside.

A2 1-8 Pass neighbour right shoulder into half hey for four, swing neighbour.

B2 1-8 Circle left threequarters, pass through and do-si-do new neighbour.

While at Whitby Folk Week 1994, I dreamed I was calling this dance. When I woke up in the morning I wrote it down, so here it is (with minor modification). The beer in the Spa may have had something to do with it!
